

TWAITES & JONES TRADING POLICIES

All our Terms & Conditions, as well as our contractual documents and procedures, are in accordance with advice received from Andrew Park of APP Wine Law, the specialist UK Wine Trade Law Firm

Twaites & Jones Ltd acknowledges that the Wine Investment market is NOT regulated by the UK's Financial Services Authority. We ensure that everyone who enquires about, or who has an interest to include Wine as an asset for investment is made aware of this fact.

Despite the lack of regulation, we believe it essential that we adhere to the following policies and therefore provide a safe and responsible service to all our clients:

- Twaites & Jones Ltd do not offer financial advice or advice on investments
 - Twaites & Jones Ltd do not offer tax advice
- Twaites & Jones Ltd encourage clients to seek advice from a registered independent financial advisor regarding tax
- Twaites & Jones Ltd do not offer any guarantees on the potential of a wine's financial appreciation
- Twaites & Jones Ltd will only sell wines that hold the highest provenance available and price their wines accordingly
 - Twaites & Jones Ltd only purchase stock from reputable sources
- Twaites & Jones Ltd enforce and uphold a strict policy of marketing – adhering to the non-use of cold-calling

Twaites & Jones Ltd are confident that our policies and service are focused on protecting the client's interest. We genuinely believe that your success is our success and we make every effort to present the best opportunities and generate the maximum rewards available in the wine market. Twaites & Jones Ltd believe that by following all our policies your exposure and risk in this market is minimised.

OUR AIM IS SIMPLE
– BRIDGE THE GAP BETWEEN THE PRIMARY AND SECONDARY MARKETS – BRINGING IT CLOSER TO YOU, THE INVESTOR
